Foreword

School life is always of utmost importance in the development of an individual's character and in the increase of the intelligence of our nation.

We have chosen the theme "School Life", and it is the purpose of this volume to capture and preserve the happy moments of our high school days. It is the wish of the Staff, that the joy we will receive in later years by this, the fourth edition of the YELLOW JACKET, will repay us for our efforts in making this book a success.

Seniors

Ruby Mildred Ballard

Cannon High School (1, 2);
Science Club (4), Secretary (4).

A tinkling giggle, a slight temper,
yet a friend to all who know her,
well dressed, petite, and very attractive.

Kathleen Basinger

Glee Club (2, 3); Playmakers
Club (3); Home Economics Club
(1, 2); Jitter Bug Club (4).

"Little but loud," a charming personality, and very popular, especially with the opposite sex.

Kathleen Beaver

Playmakers Club (3); Glee Club
(2); Science Club (4), President;
Senior Play.

Very nice looking, even tempered,
loyal friend, dependable classmate,
very smart, and "an all-round"
nice girl.

Marie Beaver

A leader among her friends, dependable, studious, and well liked by all who are acquainted with her.

Mildred Mull

China Grove (1, 2, 3); The Spectator Staff (4), Typist.

A person who wins friends readily, full of fun, an efficient student, and lovable classmate.

Emma Lee Murphy

Junior Glee Club (2, 4).

An air of quietness in class, but in for a big time outside of class. Envied for her way of looking innocent when the teacher calls on her, a person who is her friends' loyal and true companion.

Margaret Patterson

Secretary-Treasurer of Class (1); First Aid (2), Vice-President; Home Economics Club (1); Junior Glee Club (2, 4), Secretary-Treasurer (2), President (4); Playmakers Club (3, 4); Jitter Bug Club (4); Basketball (4); Playmakers Play (4).

Lovely to look at, delightful to know, a combination that makes up a most attractive girl, envied by all because of her beauty and yet liked by everyone.

Yellow Jacket

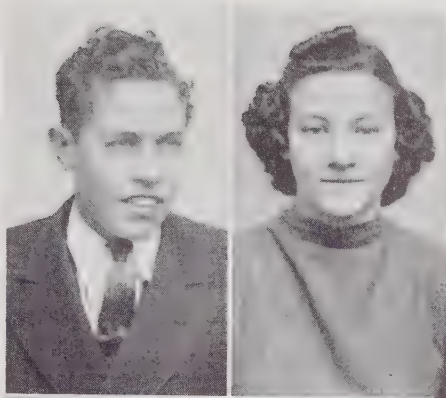

Seniors

Bennett Parks

First Aid Club (2); Glee Club (2); Playmakers Club (3, 4).

A trifle lazy, quite a lady's man (especially in study hall). Not very studious but happy most of the time.

Playmakers Play (4).

Ruth Rymer

Home Economics Club (1); First Aid Club (2).

Essence of sincerity, quiet as a mouse, pleasant disposition, and a way about her that makes us all like her.

Brilliant, a leader in all school affairs, a popular classmate loved and admired by all her friends.

Ivetus E. Thompson

Home Economics Club (1, 2), Vice-President (2); First Aid Club (2); Playmakers Club (3); Hiking Club (4), Secretary-Treasurer; Assistant Manager School Store (4).

Hard to learn to know, yet liked by all who really know her, a leader and a good manager.

Yellow Jacket

Seniors

Rachel Virginia Towell

Home Economics Club (1);
Science Club (4), Treasurer (4).

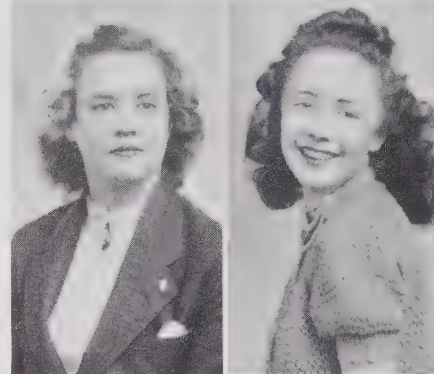

Dark hair, brown eyes, a nice personality, and truly a very congenial classmate.

Irene Troutman

Winecoff High School (1, 2);
First Aid Club (1).

A nice smile, quiet manners, an essential factor in one's list of unforgettable friends.

Ora Lee Walker

First Aid (1); Glee Club (2, 3);
Playmakers Club (3); Hiking Club (4).

A cheery smile, "tops" in looks, highly independent, and very refined.

Ruth Geneva Weast

Glee Club (1, 2); Playmakers Club (3); Jitter Bug Club (4); Home Economics Club (1); Tennis (4); Basketball (1, 2).

A happy laugh, a wise remark, a desire to have a good time always, the truest of pals.

Helen Weddington

Junior Play; First Aid Club (4).

Quiet, courteous manner, generous cooperation, willing worker and an amiable disposition.

Martha Lorene Wertz

History of the Class of '39

Some people think "Life begins at forty", but to us, the Seniors of '39, life began in the fall of '35 when after struggling through the first seven years of school we entered high school as "Green Freshmen". There were 62 of us as we ventured towards this adventure. And what an adventure! Mighty Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors walked around with their disgusted looks "where in the world did you come from?" whenever they gazed at us Freshmen. Determined to win ourselves a name in Landis High we elected officers. I was chosen President, Mary Gladys Fisher Vice-President, and Margaret Patterson Secretary-Treasurer.

Under the guidance of Miss Parker and Mr. Bennett we intended to show the upperclassmen our talents. Many people went out for school activities, especially Glee Club and Basketball.

After shedding many tears in Home Economics, and writing many themes in study hall, our first year in high school had finished, a year that began our high school life.

The Sophomore year started with only 59 students. This decrease was mostly because of marriages or becoming tired of school; nevertheless, we were upperclassmen now and could "boss" the Freshmen around. This, perhaps, was our saddest year because one of our dearest members, Marie Heglar was taken away from us by death.

We again made a name for ourselves by our activities in Glee Club, Basketball and Agricultural Club. This year we elected Mary Gladys Fisher President, James Chapman Vice-President, Mildred James Secretary-Treasurer. We made a little money that year, enough to open a savings account.

During the summer we sponsored many programs and happily started our Junior year with money towards our Junior expenses. We had 53 Juniors. To guide us as Juniors we elected Lucile Honeycutt as President, Madeline Cavin as Vice-President, James Chapman as Secretary and Mildred James as Treasurer. Miss Black (Mrs. Ralph Linn now) and Miss Bowlin were to help lead us on this adventure. What a busy year we had as "Jolly Juniors"! Again the members of our class were active in Basketball (one of our classmates, Sarah Drye, was chosen Captain), Glee Club; and to this we added Dramatics, Annual Staff, School Paper Staff. We had a large representation in the National Honorary Beta Club.

After Christmas the cast for the play "Mammy's Li'l Wild Rose" was announced. Our first public performance! We thought it was very successful and plunged ahead with bigger ideas, the most important of which was the annual Junior-Senior Banquet. This gala affair was held at the Yadkin Hotel and was carried out very successfully (we hoped) using Valentine as our theme. What excitement! Getting bids, new dresses, and learning to dance because it was this year, for the first time, that we furnished as entertainment dancing at the banquet. This delightful occasion was followed several months later by a Senior-Junior Prom in the gym, sponsored by our grade parents, putting the final touch on a never-to-be-forgotten year.

Forty-eight of us came back to begin our last year as "Dignified Seniors", although we didn't deserve this name. Again we Seniors took great part in school activities and we often wondered what the school would ever do without us. Our officers for this year were: Mary Gladys Fisher President, James Chapman Vice-President, and Emojean Shulenberger Secretary-Treasurer.

After we got our rings we really began to feel our importance and we were ready to make our Senior year our most pleasant one. One of our girls, Margaret Patterson, won a M.G.M. screen test and also the title "Miss Landis-China Grove" in beauty contests.

The Staff for the YELLOW JACKET was announced and a great campaign of getting ads, taking pictures, trying to sell annuals, and making money began. Our play "Lindy Lou", was a huge success and encouraged by this success we sponsored "cooking" at the annual Basketball Tournament.

We really "came out" in grand style at the Junior-Senior Banquet at the Yadkin Hotel. The Juniors gave us a wonderful trip to Treasure Island, feeding us bountifully and entertaining us with dancing, bingo, and Chinese Checkers.

The Senior-Junior Prom, sponsored again by our grade parents, ended our social life as Seniors. We felt rather sad as the night faded away and we realized that never again would we be together as Juniors and Seniors of Landis High School.

Preparation for commencement kept us busy for the last few weeks. So commencement finished our school life in four years, and now we are prepared to face the world courageously and make a name for ourselves in the world as we have in high school.

Senior Class Prophecy

The wind howled, the windows rattled, and suddenly the door burst open and in walked the ghostliest figure I have ever seen. I waited, horrified, and it seemed hours before the weird creature spoke, "I am the spirit of your class of '39, and I shall reveal to you the occupations and the whereabouts of your former classmates." I listened fascinated to the low voice as it continued.

Dorothy Bost is a hair stylist and her coiffeurs are copied the world over by well dressed women, while Evelyn McCorkle and Dico Murphy supply the latest creation in hats.

Having gone poetical Harry Hill is a successful poet, his latest being "Gone With the Breeze."

Her love for China Grove hasn't deserted her for Margaret Fleming now owns a Florist Shop there.

Alma Lee Morrison's favorite pastime, bicycling, has led her on to national honors for she was the only woman to enter the Six Day Bike Race.

Queen of taps is Emojean Shulenberger who devotes her time to both Hollywood and Broadway.

Evelyn Linn finally talked a millionaire into marrying her. She now resides in a small town running everything and everybody.

With a new V-8 and a chain of bakeries, J. W. Bostian is making plenty of dough.

Still the best of pals, Kathleen Beaver, Ruby Ballard, and Rachel Towell are singing over the new Landis radio station H-E-L-P, daily, with Bennett Parks as announcer.

Happily married Lucile Honeycutt has trouble with Junior because, like his mother, he talks so fast he's had to repeat the first grade for three years.

Senator James Chapman of N. C. is a successful politician with Ruth Rymer as his efficient secretary.

Fred and Nita Garver own a nightclub jointly with Orchestra Leader Odell Hess and his vocalist, the famous Mary Gladys Fisher, appearing nightly.

A national hero is aviator Duard Sloop who recently made a non-stop flight from Landis to China Grove with co-pilot Fred Heglar also receiving honors.

Ruth Weast works in a shoe store owned by Henry Corriher.

Magnetic personality, plus numerous boy friends resulted in a Dating Agency run by Marie Beaver and Katheleen Basinger for the less fortunate.

America's No. 1 Model is Madeline Cavin who models for an exclusive shop in New York City, and in our own home town Ray Smith is proprietor of a Jewelry Store with Helen Weddington as his assistant.

Hollywood's glamour girl is the beautiful Margaret Patterson who finally crashed the movies.

R. D. Wright is a scenario writer for M.G.M. While Hazel Suther is an artist for Walt Disney and still another of our classmates, Mabel Karriker, is one of Hollywood's greatest critics.

Being studious didn't keep Rebekah Taylor from advancing in sports for she is now the national tennis champion, while Herman Garrison is an all American football star.

Sarah Drye always has liked pets and V-8's so she has compromised, devoting her time to being a Ford saleslady and running a pet shop.

A music lesson on Friday certainly did help Martha Wertz for she is now a noted concert pianist.

Ruby Davis and Margaret Goodman chose nursing as their profession. Ruby is Superintendent of nurses at Mooresville Hospital, while Margaret is a nurse companion to a rich old lady.

An heiress to millions, Ineze Medlin is touring Europe while Ora Lee Walker is a Duchess after marrying into foreign nobility.

Her ability to present poems with such dramatic force has helped Pearl Beaver much in her dramatic career.

Mildred Mull and Elsie Yarbrough continued typing. Mildred is a stenographer in Boston, and Elsie is secretary to a steel magnet.

Irene Troutman's enduring patience gained her a position as matron in the Landis Orphans Home.

A gossip columnist for the Post, Ineze Ketner keeps up on all the latest news and she often praises her old friend, the champion swimmer, none other than Ivetus Thompson.

"And you," it added with a fiendish chuckle, "shall continue your feeble efforts at writing 'Stuff' being as unsuccessful as ever."

With a mocking bow my visitor was gone. "Oh," I mumbled, "What a strange dream" as I returned from the land of nod.

MILDRED JAMES, Prophet.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class, realizing that we too must soon leave you to make our fortune in a new life, do hereby declare and make known to all concerned that this is our last will and testament.

To the Superintendent, School Board, and Faculty, we do will and bequeath our sincere appreciation for their many kindnesses, noble efforts, and cooperation shown us while under their supervision.

To the Junior Class we do will and bequeath the following: our ability to go, do, and say what we please and our place of honor in chapel. We also will you the task of editing the 1940 YELLOW JACKET and making it a success.

To the Sophomore Class we do will and bequeath our ability of self-control and obedience, along with all the good grades we have made during the past four years.

To the Freshman Class we do will and bequeath our ability to stay on peaceful terms with our teachers.

1. I, Margaret Fleming, do will my art ability to "Poke" Linn.
2. I, Alma Lee Morrison, do will my love for the Karrikers to Mildred Troutman.
3. I, Helen Weddington, do will my ability to pass notes, and not be seen by teachers, to Virginia Campbell.
4. I, R. D. Wright, do will my nice clothes and ability to drive a bus to W. C. Franklin.

41. I, Ruby Davis, do will my ambition to be a nurse to Virginia Rutledge.
42. I, Dico Murphy, do will my love for New York and affection for my sister, to Lee Brown Sloop.
43. I, Irene Troutman, do will my ability to be always seen arguing with a Junior boy to Faye Roseman.
44. I, Lucile Honeycutt, do will my fast talking and management of the school store to Hazel Lee Medlin.
45. I, Margaret Goodman, do will my quiet and bashful ways to "Ikey" Snipes.
46. I, Evelyn McCorkle, do will my desire to be a beauty shop operator to Avon McAllister.
47. I, Dorothy Bost, do will my beautiful brown eyes and loud laughter to Hazel Smith.
48. I, James Chapman, do will my ability not to fall in love to Miss Beard.

In witness whereof, we the class of 1939 of Landis High School do hereby set our hand and seal. Signed, sealed, published and declared by the class of 1939 to be its Last Will and Testament on this the 28th day of April, 1939.

THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1939.

Witnessed by: Evelyn Linn, Margaret Patterson.

Will We Be Victors

*Four long years have we been striving
In this school our tasks to do;
Mounting, round by round, the ladder;
Building character firm and true.*

*Time has wrought so many changes
Since we came to old Landis High,
We are now the School Seniors,
Working upward with a sigh.*

*We have witnessed many hardships,
Pleasures, too, have come our way,
But with noble thought and purpose
We are striving toward the day.*

*We will take our place as citizens
With the greatest pride and grace,
Scaling heights that loom before us,
Never tiring in the race.*

*Then we'll turn into the future
And to Alma-Mater, we'll be true,
And if we are noble victors
We will owe it all to YOU.*

EVELYN LINN, Class Poet

Alma Morrison

Mr. Eastman,

I can never thank you enough for all you have done for me. Though if I ever do finish college and would ever happen to "amount" to anything I will do my best to repay you in some way. May your future years be as successful as the past has been.

Mrs. Boston

I have enjoyed being in Grog. under you Best
